

Corporate Programs Fees

What is the cost of the corporate programs?

The pricing for Neurogenesis corporate programs is customized based on the specific needs of your organization. Factors such as the program's modality, duration, team size, and applicable discounts influence the final cost. Due to the tailored nature of our services, pricing is provided upon request after determining the scope of the program.

To receive a personalized quote and explore how our programs can support your organizational objectives, please contact us directly.

Are tailored pricing structures or exclusive discounts available for specific corporate profiles?

Yes, we provide tailored pricing structures to accommodate the unique needs of different corporate profiles. Exclusive discounts may be available for non-profit organizations, startups, key industries such as healthcare and education, large teams, long-term partnerships, or multi-session packages. These options are designed to make our services accessible while supporting organizations committed to creating a collective positive impact.

For a customized proposal aligned with your organization's objectives, feel free to contact us. We are happy to discuss options that meet your specific needs.